

Program at a glance

Program and titles might be subject to change. Due to availability of speakers.

'The Olympic games of the diabetic foot'

Tuesday May 9

17:00 - 20:00 Registration

19:00 - 21:00 WELCOME RECEPTION

Wednesday May 10

07:30 - 08:30 Registration

08:30 - 10:00 PLENARY SESSION 1:

PL 1: The diabetic foot-four decades of progress

PL 2: What progress did we make in management of PAD

PL 3: Diabetic foot infections; developments in diagnosis and treatment

10:00 - 10:30 Coffee break

10:30 - 12:00 ORAL SESSION

ORAL SESSION

ORAL SESSION

ORAL SESSION

12:00 - 14:00 Lunch & poster discussions

SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM 1

SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM 2

SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM 3

14:00 - 15:15 WORKSHOPS:

W1a: Management of edema

W5a: Podiatry: a live diabetic diabetic foot clinic

W9a: Negative pressure wound therapy

W2a: Difficult infection cases (in collaboration with IADFS)

W6a: Diabetic foot disease in end-stage renal disease

W10a: Translating guidelines into real world care (in collaboration with WFVS)

W3a: Shoes: from science to art

W7a: Prevention and education

W11: Bone biopsy: an instructional course

W4a: Radiology and nuclear medicine: pearls and pitfalls

W8a: Casting techniques: an instructional course

W12: Functional anatomy and biomechanics of the foot

15:15 - 15:45 Coffee break

15:45 - 17:45 MINISYMPOSIA:

MS1: Wound healing

MS2: Rising star symposium

MS3: Diabetic foot infection in the emergency room: a Grand Rounds

MS4: Adherence to therapy: the holy grail of foot disease

19:00 - 23:00 PRESIDENTIAL DINNER (by invitation only)

Thursday May 11

07:30 - 08:30	Registration
08:30 - 10:00	PLENARY SESSION 2:
	PL 4: What have I learned from performing 30 years clinical trials in DFU PL 5: These shoes are made for walking... but where to? PL 6: Charcot neuro-osteoarthropathy
10:00 - 10:30	Coffee break
10:30 - 12:00	ORAL SESSION	ORAL SESSION	ORAL SESSION	ORAL SESSION
12:00 - 14:00	Lunch & poster discussions	SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM 4	SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM 5	SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM 6
14:00 - 15:15	WORKSHOPS:
	W1b: Management of edema	W5b: Podiatry: a live diabetic diabetic foot clinic	W15a: Treating the whole geriatric patient and not the hole in the patient
	W2b: Difficult infection cases (in collaboration with IADFS)	W8b: Casting techniques: an instructional course	W16a: How local factors can impact management of the ischemic diabetic foot in 2023 (in collaboration with WFVS)
	W3b: Shoes: from science to art	W13a: Treatment of acute Charcot neuro-osteoarthropathy	W17a: Footwear and offloading when resources are limited (in collaboration with D-Foot International)
	W4b: Radiology and nuclear medicine: pearls and pitfalls	W14a: When and how to choose dressings, advanced wound healing interventions and maggots	W18: TBD (in collaboration with D-Foot International)
15:15 - 15:45	Coffee break
15:45 - 17:45	MINISYMPOSIA:
	MS5: Prevention: from psychology to surgery	MS6: How to organise and evaluate diabetic foot care	MS7: Critical reviews	MS8: Diabetic foot surgery (in collaboration with IADFS)

Friday May 12

07:30 - 08:30	Registration
08:30 - 10:00	PLENARY SESSION 3:
	PL 7: New developments in diagnosis and treatment of (painful) diabetic neuropathy PL 8: How to optimise healing of a diabetic foot ulcer PL 9: TBD
10:00 - 10:15	KAREL BAKKER AWARD CEREMONY
10:15 - 10:45	Coffee break
10:45 - 12:15	ORAL SESSION	ORAL SESSION	ORAL SESSION	ORAL SESSION
12:15 - 14:15	Lunch & poster discussions	SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM 7	SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM 8	SATELLITE SYMPOSIUM 9
14:15 - 15:30	WORKSHOPS:
	W6b: Diabetic foot disease in end-stage renal disease	W13b: Treatment of acute Charcot neuro-osteopathy	W17b: Footwear and offloading when resources are limited (in collaboration with D-Foot International)
	W7b: Prevention and education	W14b: When and how to choose dressings, advanced wound healing interventions and maggots	W19: Minor amputations (in collaboration with IADFS)
	W9b: Negative pressure wound therapy	W15b: Treating the whole geriatric patient and not the hole in the patient	W20: Diagnosis and management of skin and nail disorders of the foot
	W10b: Translating guidelines into real world care (in collaboration with WFVS)	W16b: How local factors can impact management of the ischemic diabetic foot in 2023 (in collaboration with WFVS)	W21: How to present my research data (part of Young Investigator String)
15:30 - 16:00	Coffee break
16:00 - 18:00	MINISYMPOSIA:
	MS9: What can low and high resource countries learn from each other (in collaboration with D-Foot International)	MS 10: Top 4 studies of the last four years	MS 11: Performing research in DFU (part of Young Investigator String)	MS12: Peripheral artery disease in diabetic foot ulceration; a global view (in collaboration with WFVS)
19:30	SYMPOSIUM DINNER

Saturday May 13

07:30 - 08:30	Registration
08:30 - 10:30	PLENARY SESSION 4: PL 10: Presidential Address: The diabetic foot attack: the amateur thinks strategy, the professional logistics PL 11: Using the knife to preserve the diabetic foot PL 12: Medical therapies to preserve the diabetic foot PL 13: New technology that we can apply today (not tomorrow) to improve PROMs
10:30 - 11:00	Coffee break
11:00 - 12:30	LAUNCH OF THE NEW IWGDF GUIDELINES
12:30 - 12:45	POSTER AND ORAL PRESENTATION AWARDS
12:45 - 13:00	Summing up, closing and farewell